

ARPA PRODUCER OF THE YEAR AWARD 2026

FNF CONSTRUCTION, INC.

ARPA honors one exceptional producing member company that exemplifies leadership, engagement, and unwavering support of our mission. This recognition is reserved for those who actively participate across all fronts including technical, regulatory, legislative, and community relations and consistently contributes to the success of the Association and the industry at large.

2026 Producer of the Year Award honors FNF Construction, Inc. for its outstanding leadership, commitment to quality, safety, innovation, and unwavering support of ARPA and the Arizona aggregate industry. Their dedication to excellence and active involvement have helped strengthen both our association and our industry.

A special recognition goes to Martin Ramirez, whose exceptional leadership and willingness to help in every capacity have been instrumental to FNF's engagement. Martin serves on the ARPA Executive Committee and Board, numerous technical committees, and represents the industry on the ADOT Details & Specs Committee, MAG TPC, and other key initiatives, including ADOT Kaizen, State Mine Reform efforts, partnering, regulatory issues, and the ARPA Future Leaders Program. His commitment to collaboration and industry advancement has made a lasting impact.

Congratulations to FNF Construction, Inc., our 2026 Producer of the Year!
