

ARPA EXCEPTIONAL LEADERSHIP AWARD 2026

SIMONE WESTBROOK-HALL ARIZONA STATE LEGISLATURE

The Industry Leadership Award honors an individual within the rock products industry who has vision, integrity, and unwavering commitment have inspired others while driving meaningful progress. Through servant leadership, sound judgment, and the ability to bring people together toward a common purpose, this leader has left a lasting legacy of excellence and positive impact. Often working behind the scenes, their consistent “all hands-on deck” approach has made a lasting impact on our industry’s success and reputation in Arizona.

ARPA is proud to recognize Simone Westbrook-Hall of Arizona State Legislature with the 2026 Exceptional Leadership Award!

Simone has worked with in various capacities for years including through, Arizona Game and Fish, Arizona State Land Department, and now the Senate. She listens, she acts, and communicates regularly and openly. We deeply appreciate the time and attention she dedicates to understanding our unique industry challenges and opportunities, especially as it pertains to natural resources and public safety issues in our state. Simone has been a tremendous asset to the Senate this past year and has earned the trust of leadership and the members given her vast knowledge of the issues facing the state due to her years of service. We are proud to work with her.

Thank you, Simone, for your outstanding commitment!
